HERE'S the POINT!

By SPENCE HELD

My favorite school teacher likes to travel and I like to stay home—so we compromised and spent a week at Idyllwild in the San Jacinto Mountains. (About 100 miles from here.)

We had a cabin in the pines where gray squirrels outnumbered people by a fair margin.

Our porch was high off the ground, surrounded by tall pines and cedars. We'd sit there in the afternoon and watch the bright-eyed and bushy-tailed comedians chase each other up trees and out on branches that barely supported their weight.

They'd leap from one tree to another with ease and grace; once three of 'em staged a wild head-to-tail rat race in front of the grandstand . . . Only one squirrel ventured onto the porch—he eyed us in friendly fashion but soon took off.

A thunderstorm brought rain pattering through the forest one afternoon . . . I stood on the porch in a pair of trunks and enjoyed a cooling shower.

* * *

Yes, it was calm and peaceful and the sound of the wind rushing through the treetops was soothing . . . Then came a rift in the lute—a young couple arrived with a radio.

It blasted full-power all that day, the raucous commercials drowning out the natural noises of the forest . . . Finally, about 11 p.m., we asked them to please turn the horrible thing down.

They turned it off — and it stayed off.

* * *

We encountered an adult delinquent in a cafe . . . Seated with his wife and five children, this boozed-up oaf flew into a towering rage at the poor service.

He pounded the table and shouted . . . went out and got another drink . . . pounded and shouted and made a spectacle of himself.

Yeah, I prefer squirrels.

* * *

Idyllwild has a barber who writes . . . He's written a pocket book entitled "A Rage to Kill"—but he wields his razor carefully on customers. His name is Boyd "Whitey" Lovell.

Other business people at Idyllwild include Ida Wilder and Selden Belden . . . Hugh Greer of Ocean Beach builds houses there.

* * *

One day we hiked up the trail toward Tahquitz Lookout, stopping every 50 feet or so to pant and wheeze and mop our steaming brows. We climbed maybe a thousand feet in the course of a mile and then turned around and went home . . . That was all, brother.

* * *

Hey, if you're ever in Beaumont try the "Rusty Lantern" cafe . . . The food is sensational.

Hi, Verna!

Persons interested in Scouting are invited to attend an all-day open house Sunday, Sept. 8, at the New Mataguay Scout Ranch northeast of Santa Ysabel, according to William McCollom, North Shores district chairman, Boy Scouts.

"We're interested in having Cub Scout packs and Scout troops, wtih their families," he said. "They should bring their own picnic lunches.

"We want them to see this 697-acre ranch. There are seven different species of trees, a swimming pool, three lakes, and campsites. Facilities will be developed for taking care of 3,000 to 4,000 Scouts each summer."

Top Thoroughbreds To See Action In Derby & Handicap At Del Mar

DEL MAR — Top thoroughbred stars of the Far West will see action this weekend in two of the biggest events of the 1957 season — the $25,000 Del Mar Derby for 3-year-olds Saturday and the $30,000 Del Mar Handicap, for 3-year-olds and upward on the following Monday, Labor Day.

The management has announced a first post time of 2 p.m., starting Saturday and continuing through the close of the meeting, Sept. 9.

The Derby promises to attract a stellar field of sophomores for the mile and a furlong route, headed by a trio of bitter rivals in recent turf battles here — Mr. and Mrs. Harry James' No Bumps, Neil S. McCarthy's Seaneen and Mystic Eye, the one-eyed colt from the O Enterprises stable.

Popular Eddie Schmidt, one of the most improved stakes horses in training and decisive winner of the San Diego Handicap, looms as the solid favorite and starting high weight in the Del Mar 'Cap, feature of the Monday holiday program. The son of Count Speed has been asked to shoulder 124 pounds.

This topflight event will have its 18th running and is programmed over the mile and a furlong distance, same route as the Derby.

Eddie Schmidt will have help from his stablemate, Noredski, and the Elobee Farms' pair will face such tough campaigners as Gigantic, How Now, Lover Boy, Ordained, Prefect II, Windsor Serial.

Chamber's Work Pays Off; State To Improve Beach

H. J. La Dou, chairman of the Beach Improvement Committee of the Ocean Beach Chamber of Commerce, yesterday expressed gratification at reports that the State plans to spend at least $400,000 for improvement of the beach area between Niagara Ave. and the flood control channel.

"We have been working on this project for several years," said La Dou. "The Chamber's board of directors has approved it 100 percent, and is offering its services to the State Park Commission in helping it to acquire the necessary property rights.

"We feel this improvement project, involving landscaped parking areas, rest rooms, picnic areas, etc., will permanently benefit the local economy as well as the entire residential community.

La Dou said that owners of private property in the area who have any questions about the project should contact the O.B. Chamber on Bacon St., AC-3-9767.

Hot Competition Features Final Derby Period

Competition in the final period of the $25,000 San Diego Yellowtail Derby continued at a red hot pace this week, with yellows, albacore, and bluefin tuna all taking turns at jacking up the minimum qualifying weight which already had climbed to record heights.

Richard Brown, Long Beach, took over the derby lead by landing a 44 pound 4 ounce albacore, and George Gerst, Lomita, moved into second spot with a 41-8.

Largest bluefin checked in was a 37 pound 10 ouncer bagged by Delbert Shore, San Diego at North Coronado Island.

As the result of such heavy action at the official weighing stand, minimum weight stood at 29 pounds 14 ounces at the close of the fifth week of qualifying in the final eight-week period.

Total catch of derby anglers during the week included: 3791 yellowtail, 2124 albacore, 292 yellowfin tuna, 46 bluefin tuna, 2614 skipjack, 2229 dolphin, and 4293 barracuda.

Among late qualifiers were: C. W. Warner, Ocean Beach, 30-3 albacore; J. W. Kingsley, Ocean Beach, 31-6 albacore.

School Registration Set For Next Week

With the formal opening of City Schools scheduled Tuesday, Sept. 10, registration dates have been set next week for new students in elementary, junior and senior high schools.

In elementary schools, new pupils (kindergarteners and all other pupils new to the school district in which they now live) will register Friday, Sept. 6, from 1 to 4 p.m. All others report Sept. 10.

At Dana Junior High and Point Loma High, students who are new residents in these school districts will register Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, Sept. 4, 5 and 6, from 8:30 to 11:30 a.m.

Dana expects about 1,800 7th, 8th and 9th grade students. About 200 9th graders who would normally attend Dana will report to Point Loma High this year for their 9th grade classes. These students were notified of this transfer last June and already are registered at PLHS. (The transfer was necessary to avoid overcrowding Dana far beyond its normal capacity.)

Last year's local 6th graders entering Dana, and last year's 9th graders entering PLHS, already are registered.

To be enrolled in kindergarten, a child must be 5 years old on or before Dec. 2, 1957. To be enrolled in the first grade, a child must be six years old on or before that date.

All kindergarteners as well as all other elementary school children enrolling in San Diego for the first time must present a birth certificate, baptismal certificate or other authentic evidence of date of birth.

NEW BUILDING — This is an architect's drawing of the two-story commercial building and apartment under construction at 1919 Cable St. It represents an investment of about $75,000.

Building Construction Starts

Construction of a two-story commercial building and apartment was started this week at 1919 Cable St., Ocean Beach.

The building features a flexible arrangement for the first floor which allows it to be subdivided into from two to four stores or offices to suit the desires of tenants. The project represents an investment of approximately $75,000, according to John Wahl, owner of the property.

Construction will be of concrete masonry, steel and wood frame, stucco and glass, and will incorporate about 5000 square feet of floor area.

The building is of contemporary design and includes several unique features, according to the architect, Robert Platt. These include: a cantilevered second floor overhang to shelter store fronts and to serve as a sign background, a built-in music system, sheltered side entrances with garden wall and plantings, and a second floor owner's apartment with extensive floor-to-ceiling glass walls opening from living areas to a covered balcony and trellised roof deck gardens.

H. B. Greer is the builder.

GENERAL QUARTERS

When the John (Cliff) Felix family moved into their home at 3615 Plumosa Dr., Karen, their teenage daughter, chose for her bedroom a detached room near the alley. Her family gave her a cowbell to ring in case of an emergency.

As the months passed into years, the old cowbell served only as decor.

Then about 2 a.m. one morning last week, a piercing scream, accompanied by unmelodious clangs from the cowbell, penetrated Plumosa Park.

"My husband let out a rebel yell, hit the ceiling and was at Karen's side in a matter of moments," said Mrs. Felix. "An ex-Navy man next door thought it was general quarters and reported promptly."

The excitement was caused by a peeping Tom, who doesn't realize yet how lucky he was to have escaped.

"After all these years this is the first opportunity I've had to see how brave my husband is," Mrs. Felix said.

WARNING

Note to local teachers first week of school: Be on alert for small black (easily concealed) water pistols!

BELOW THE BELT

The heavy-set speaker at the Old Globe Theatre looked around at his Shakespearean architectural surroundings.

"I feel it most fitting," he said to his audience, "to quote a bit of Shakespeare before I start my lecture."

He paused.

Then he plunked his palms down on his well-padded hips, gazed at the ceiling and began to quote: "Ah, if this too, too heavy flesh would only melt. . "

HEARD AND LIKED

"There is no deception quite so great as self-deception."

ALSO HEARD

Then there was the little old lady who put wheels on her rocking chair so that she could rock AND roll.

SO WHAT'S NEW

For fall it looks as if the fitted suit and coat will be in the news again. There's a "belted in" look to some . . . Collars have grown to look like short capes . . . Belts are taking a soft trend with many folds . . . School girls may look forward to the new knitted shirt and getting their bulky sweaters out of mothballs for a return engagement . . . Hats have taken a back seat (on the back of the head), are small with much (straight line) coiffure interest in front.

FAMILY AFFAIR

When Charlotte Ann Wolf celebrated her 11th birthday Friday, her favorite chef was in charge of the barbecue dinner which was held in the patio of her home at 1014 Devonshire Dr.

The chef? Oh, that was her daddy, Gilbert T. Wolf.
